ILLINOIS TOWN HAS EPIDEMIC OF POISON BOOZE FATALITIES

'SHA FINE SPEECH,' SAY POLITICIANS, IF
WILL ISN'T WRONG

(Special To The News)
NEW YORK, March 5.—It sure did seem strange to hear a presidential speech on something besides prosperity.
Mr. Hoover hadn't been known in three minutes before
he waded into a topic that Mr.
Coolidge had never mentioned in six years, that was prohibition.
And judges, senators, governors, congressmen and party leaders hadn't been to their homes, or hotels, three minutes till they waded into some old corn (pre-war) to kinder keep the chill off them after that rain.
And over many a clinking glass, the general comment was
"that was a fine speech of Hoover's, and right to the point, too."

Yours,
WILL.
P. S.—Mr. Coolidge passed through here this evening and I believe I know what that quiet grin was about.

(International News Service)
PEORIA, Ill., March 5.—Fifteen dead, a score or more blinded, and many times that number critically ill from poisoned liquor, shocked Peoria today as police raiders began closing all speak-easies and "blind pigs".
Three alleged alcohol "cookers" already are under arrest.
Three thousand local bootleggers are said to have closed up shop as a result of the alarming death rate and the subsequent investigation.
All of the fifteen victims have died within the past 72 hours.

Dozens Are Ill
Dozens of others are desperately ill and many are feared to have lost their sight. The total deaths from week-end drinking of moonshine may reach twenty, according to Coroner
William E. Elliott.
Those arrested in connection with the liquor deaths are Morris Man-field, Louis Fels, Walter Niebert, who no specific charges have been lodged against; the men, they are being held in the county jail pending the conclusion of Coroner Elliott's investigation.
Local physicians, co-operating with Coroner Elliott, are hourly reporting additional cases of poisoning. Some of the fatal liguors it was said, had been shipped to Galesburg and Decatur and several other Illinois cities.

Chicago Attorney Names Three Men In Massacre Plot

State's Attorney Gives Names Of Three Charged With Taking Part In Massacre

"SCARFACE" CAPONE
ALLEGED INTERESTED

Revenge For Recent Slaying Is Claimed Motive For Fiendish Act

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, March 5.—Three men were named today by the state's attorney's office as actual participants in the St. Valentine's Day massacre of seven Moran gangsters.
Those named are:
Joseph Lolorio, brother of Pasqualino Lolorio, who was assassinated by gangsters in his home here on January 8.
Frederick R. Burke, alias Thomas
A. Camp, alias Joseph P. Lewis, of St.
Louis, Mo.
James Ray, also of St. Louis.
Assistant State's Attorney David Stansbury declared he has definitely ascertained that Lolorio operated one of the machine guns that moved down the seven gangsters, and that Burke, hunted for years as a bank robber, and Ray were both with Lolorio at the time.
Stansbury further declared that he has the names of two other men who entered the front door of the murder garage with this trio, but he did not disclose their identity.
McGurn In On Deal
In the light of new developments
the prosecutors now believe that "Machine Gun Jack" McGurn, arrested as one of the actual slayers, was not among the firing squad but that he had much to do with "arranging" the wholesale execution.
Information on which the authorities base their latest theory of the killings was obtained in St. Louis by Assistant State's Attorney Walker
Butler and Police Lieut. William Cusack, who went to the Missouri city soon after the shooting.
In St. Louis the investigators are said to have learned that it was Burke and Ray who dressed in the uniforms of policemen to assist their uniformed accomplices.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Over at the public library Monday
there was ample proof of the Pa.
centennial inauguration. A radio bespoke the various addresses, while pictures of President Herbert Hoover and the now first lady of the land were displayed prominently about the walls.

Income taxers have but a short time to get their necessary filing done. The local bureau in charge is rushed at the last minute somewhat like the polls were during the morning hours
at the last election day.

One of the Pa. News family who never played roulette until the other day—and then I was but an innocent game with no dimes at stake—understands something of the famous Monte Carlo fascination. It makes an interesting game without the money part.

Pa. News gets this sign of spring
from the sunny South:
February 23, 1929.

Pa. News.
The News.
New Castle.
Dear Sir: Received your paper of the 14th today and noticed in your column that you wanted to hear of some sign of spring such as a barefooted boy, robins and so forth.
Since January 20 I have been sleeping on the top side where there is nothing but "Boo-Koo" fresh air and using but one blanket. I wish I had a penny for every straw hat that I've seen.
I'll be thinking of you in about an hour or so, when I will be swimming in nice, warm water.
Excuse me, I have forgotten to state that I am now in Panama City, Republic of Panama. Have been in the Canal Zone since January 20.
Sincerely,
CHARLES L. BREST.
U. S. S. McFarland,
Balboa, Canal Zone.

If you listened to the inaugural yesterday via the family radio and heard the Pennsylvania division going by, you heard the announcer say something to the effect that the Sharandum corps was passing. Their music was second to none but Pa. News hates to think of the rain on those beautiful bands.

When I Was 21

William H. Gillespie, mayor of the city of New Castle, starts out the first of the "When I Was 21" series. Mayor Gillespie was traveling westward to Nebraska when he was 21 years of age.
Mr. Gillespie left his home in Mahoning township and upon his arrival in Nebraska taught school there for a number of years. He had previously attended a preparatory school at Valparaiso, Ind.
The mayor is a coin connoisseur and ardent collector.

New President Turns Attention To Mexico First

Revolution In Mexico Is First
Matter To Claim Hoover's Interest

(Bulletin)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 5.—Herbert Hoover's first official act as President today was to turn his attention to the apparently serious revolution in Mexico, which is threatening the stability of the government there.
Secretary of State Kellogg went to the White House at 10:30 o'clock at the new President's request, taking the latest reports from Ambassador Morrow in Mexico City.
The President and Secretary Kellogg, who is carrying on as foreign minister until Henry L. Stimson arrives here from Manila, discussed the reports for a quarter of an hour. Kellogg then went back to the State Department, leaving the reports on Mr. Hoover's desk.

No Serious Disorder
The only encouraging feature of the Mexican revolt as Washington sees it, is the fact that although the rebels are reported to have gained complete or partial control of 10 states, a third of the country, there has not been any serious bloodshed. This is something new in Mexican revolutions.

An embargo on arms and ammunition is now in effect all along the border and has been for some time. There is no expectation that this embargo will be lifted.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Col. Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and his attorney, Albert W. Hopkins, replied hotly here today to the statements of the Rockefeller interests that Stewart was "hopelessly beaten" in the proxy battle which will be decided Thursday.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass.,
March 5.—Main street stretched out its arms today and took Calvin Coolidge to its bosom. The boy who had gone to the city and made good was back home.
"Oh! There's no place like home," bravely blared the American Legion band as the man who had been 29th
President of the United States stepped from his private car into the rain and the home folks reared a vociferous assent.
Ten years ago this thin-faced, sand-dy-haired man, who had once been their mayor, went away to become governor of the state, and in that intervening time he became vice president and then President. Today he returned a private citizen, prepared once more to cast his lot with theirs, to live in their midst and to do as they do.

It was just quarter of nine this morning when Calvin and Grace

(International News Service)
The sweep of revolution throughout Mexico has increased in the past 24 hours.
Ten states are in revolt.
It is reported from the border that fighting has broken out between the insurrectionists and federals in the state of Sonora. This report is not confirmed, however.
The Mexican government is maintaining strict censorship.
American interest in the revolution is increased by the fact that Col.
Charles A. Lindbergh and his fiancée,
Miss Anne Spencer Morrow, daughter of the United States ambassador to Mexico, are in Mexico City.
Americans Not Menaced
So far as known no American lives
nor properties have been menaced.
President Emilio Portes Gil of the Mexican republic was quoted in Mexico City dispatches as saying he was positive the government can put down
the revolt.
Former President P. Elias Calles, who was especially appointed war secretary, is personally directing the movement of federal troops. He is confident of victory. Troops of known loyalty are being massed about Mex-

Three Thousand Rebels Plan March On Mexico City

Federal Troops Retreat In Front Of Revolutionary Force

FEDERALS TO MASS
ON SOUTHERN FRONT

(International News Service)
NOGALES, SONORA, Mexico, March 5.—Preparing to march on Mexico City, three thousand rebel troops, under the leadership of General Rebollo, today were concentrating at Nogales, in Southern Sonora, according to reports reaching the border.

General Jaime Camillo and a force of federal troops under his command have retreated to Matatlan, Sinaloa, in the face of the revolutionary movement.

A federal army will be concentrated on the southern front to cut off the rebels in that part of Mexico, according to a communique issued at the office of President Emilio Portes Gil in Mexico City today. It will be commanded by General Juan Andres Almazan, military chief of the state of Nuevo Leon, and the youngest division general in the Mexican army.

New Bond Issues Being Proposed

Can't Vote On New State
Bond Projects For Five Years, However

HARRISBURG, March 5.—Defeat of five constitutional amendments last fall which would have increased the state's bonded debt by $138,000,000 has not in any way kept down the number of proposed bond issues by the present session of the legislature. There have been three loans proposed by members and the total amount of the debt increase carried in this trio is $75,000,000.

Under the decisions of the supreme court and the constitution amendments cannot be voted on except in five-year intervals. Since 1924 was a timely year, as the court terms it, no amendments can come before the people until 1929. That will allow two more sessions of the legislature to introduce amendments and during that time many more are likely to be sponsored which would further increase the state's debt.

The largest bond issue proposed this session is one for $50,000,000 to give a bonus for all soldiers except those of the Civil war. It has the backing of veterans' organizations. The amendment already has passed the house and is now in the senate.

A bond issue of $15,000,000 for the state to acquire airports and landing fields is proposed in another bond issue. This loan is backed by persons interested in the development of aviation. They hope to impress on the people of Pennsylvania the importance of aerial transportation. This group feels that by the time the bond issue can be voted on much valuable time will be lost and that the real need to aid aviation is appropriations from the general fund.

Representative Kohr of Cumberland county is the sponsor of the third proposed loan of $10,000,000 to purchase toll bridges on highway routes. There are toll bridges over the Susquehanna river at Sunbury, Clark's Ferry, Harrisburg and Wrightsville. The others are in the western section of Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO ATTORNEY
NAMES THREE MEN
IN MASSACRE PLOT

Chicago associate gangsters in the massacre. Burke has been a fugitive since the robbery of a bank at Portland, Ky. in 1935.

Corroborative evidence involving Burke and Ray as the "policemen" in the crime was said to have been found here in a raid on a gangster rendezvous.

Alleged Capone Interested
The theory that the massacre was ordered by "Scarface Al" Capone from his winter home at Miami, Jack McGinn and Claude Maddox, remain intact, the prosecutors said. Late developments, it was pointed out, only offer a second motive for wiping out the George Moran gang.

As the prosecutors set it now, Pasquino Lolorio, who succeeded the slain Tony Lombardo as head of the Union Siciliano, was assassinated by Peter and Frank Guseberg and James Clark, three massacre victims, because Lolorio was trying to "muscle" in on the choice north side neighborhood preserves of the Moran gang.

Knowing that Joseph Lolorio, brother of the slain Pasquino, was anxious for revenge, he was "used" by the Capone-McGinn-Maddox faction to rid the latter of the troublesome Moran crowd, in the opinion of the prosecutors.

It was said that Lolorio was given the honor of manipulating the death-dealing machine gun in order that his desire for vengeance might be fully gratified.

northern and western states to communities south of the capital. The states controlled either wholly or in part by the rebels are Sonora, Oaxaca, Sinaloa, Durango, Coahuila, Nuevo Leon, Jalisco, Vera Cruz, Zacatecas and Nayarit.

The great northern state of Chihuahua has evidently remained loyal so far.

Gil Not Seized
A sensational rumor was circulated in both the United States and Europe that President Portes Gil had been seized and imprisoned, but it proved untrue.

One of the latest of the well-known Mexican military leaders to join the rebels is Gen. Jose Gonzalo Escobar. He was military commander in the state of Coahuila.

There are evidences that the various groups of insurrectionary forces throughout Mexico have joined forces. The nucleus of the rebel movement was the religious anti-government forces in Jalisco.

One of the chief political leaders of the rebel forces is Gilberto Valenzuela, a candidate for president, who has been making savage speeches against former President Calles. He accused the former president of bringing on the religious crisis in Mexico "to give him an opportunity for persecutions."

General Topete, governor of Sonora, is also a candidate for president.

who has cast his lot with the insurgents, has declared the religious laws nullified in Sonora. This is the first direct move of the rebels to abolish the stringent religious laws throughout the republic.

Ambassador Morrow is keeping in close touch with the situation and is reporting developments to the State Department.

One insurgent force is reported moving towards Mexico City from Vera Cruz. Belief was expressed in Mexico City that the federalists south of the capital would be able to turn them back.

General Villarreal, another presidential candidate, who has joined the rebels, was said to have seized Monterrey, an industrial city in Nuevo Leon.

Former President Calles, who is noted for his iron discipline and sternness, will leave Mexico City tonight or tomorrow for the north in an effort to drive the rebels out of Sonora.

Troops Are Levied
The government is seeking new levies of troops for use against the rebels. Military officers are being requested to repeat their pledges of loyalty to the Portes Gil government.

Latest advices from Mexico City said the populace was calm and that there was no evidence there of any fighting.

Throughout his tenure of office President Portes Gil has maintained a lenient attitude towards the forces that were opposing his administration. This policy is now to be switched to one of aggressiveness.

In his manifesto, issued to the press, the president made special mention of three of the rebel leaders, accusing them of abusing their authority and of using the troops under their command to try to overturn the government. These men are Gen. Jesus Aguirre, Gen. Francisco Manzo and Gen. Escobar.

arrived when the new chief put in appearance at the executive offices. Lawrence Richey, who has been one of his secretaries for some years, and who is to occupy the post that E. T. Clark held in the Coolidge regime, that of personal secretary, was on hand to greet him.

The chief secretaryship to the president, held by Everett Sanders in the Coolidge administration, is to be occupied by George Atkinson, former Minneapolis newspaper man.

No Engagements
No engagements were made for the new president during the morning, at his express direction. He wanted the morning hours left free so that he could familiarize himself with his new surroundings and just not be the exacting duties of yesterday.

It was said that neither he nor Mrs. Hoover suffered any ill effects from yesterday's drenching rain. Mr. Hoover spoke for half an hour with the rain beating on his bare head, and later rode for twenty minutes in an open car down Pennsylvania avenue with the rain pouring down.

Press Conference
It was announced that the usual Tuesday press conference would be held at the White House at noon, indicating the new president's intention of continuing the bi-weekly contacts with Washington correspondents.

The rest of the day was to be devoted largely to personally greeting inaugural visitors, which has not been possible during the last few hectic days.

The Hamilton club of Chicago and the Malton County Republican organization of Cincinnati were two of the delegations on the engagement list. Rep. Cullin (R) of New York had an engagement to present friends, and a "good will" delegation scheduled a call at 12:45 p. m.

Billie Burke

"To stay slender reach for a Lucky Strike instead of a sweet when your sweet-tooth tempts you. I have practised this for years and find it a most effective way of retaining a trim figure. There is something to the toasting process which develops a flavor in Luckies that completely satisfies the desire for sweets. At the same time, toasting takes out the irritants and Luckies never affect the voice."

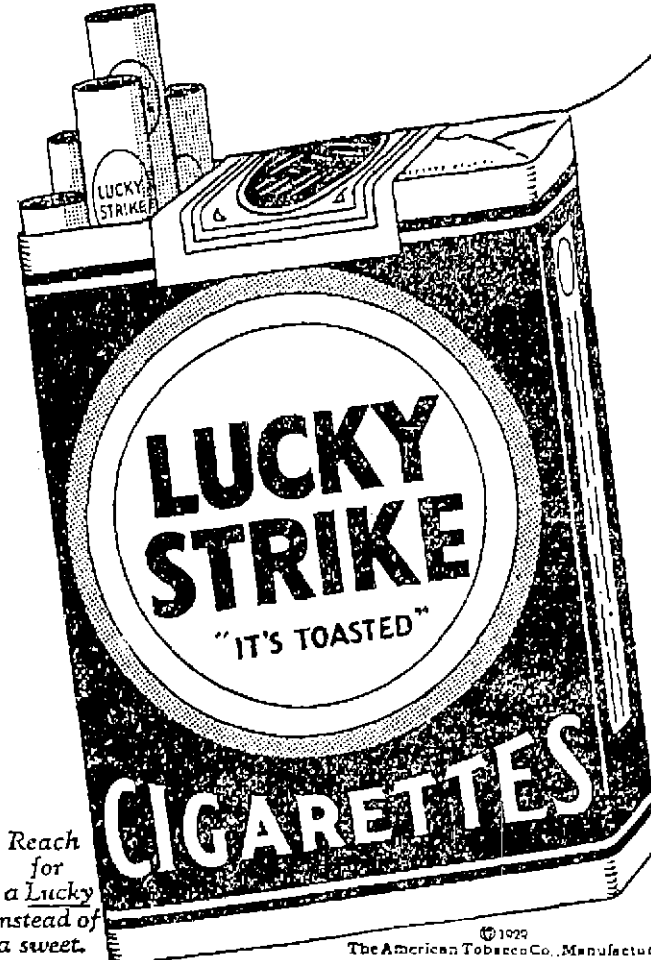

BILLIE BURKE

Note: Authorities attribute the enormous increase in Cigarette smoking to the improvement in the process of Cigarette manufacture by the application of heat. It is true that during the year 1928, Lucky Strike Cigarettes showed a greater increase than all other Cigarettes combined. This confirms in no uncertain terms the public's confidence in the superiority of Lucky Strike.

Road Tax Millage Is Increased In Pulaski Township

Road Supervisors Find That They Cannot Get Along With Ten Mill Levy

Another township has found that it will be necessary to levy an additional tax millage in order to take care of the roads in the district. This time it is Pulaski township.

In a statement and petition filed by supervisors Paul H. McGinnis, John Neal and Harry M. Thompson, it is shown that the assessed valuation of the township is $993,557. There is a road indebtedness of $8,750, and it is estimated that the expenses for 1929 will be at least $8,000.

It is set forth that a ten mill tax as allowed by law will not be sufficient to take care of the roads this year and pay anything on the existing indebtedness. Supervisors asked that they be given authority to levy an additional five mills, making fifteen mills in all. Judges Hildebrand and Chambers granted the petition.

Pulaski is the third township to file an application to increase the tax millage this year.

FIND DIFFERENT SON ON RETURN FROM TRIP

Sparrows Point, Md.—To return from a trip abroad and find one's son completely changed in appearance and temperament would be a shock to any parent, but to find that the change is all for the better makes the shock a pleasant one. This was the experience of a Maryland couple, who, returning from a trip to Europe, found that their boy had changed from a pale, illing youngster to a fresh, checked, alert youth. How the magic transformation was worked is told by Mrs. D. E. Griffin of this town, a cousin of the boy who changed.

"There were four of us—three boys and a girl—healthy, robust, and with enormous appetites," Mrs. Griffin begins. "Father and Mother had always used Postum and we, as children, took Postum so much for granted that we scarcely knew there were any other beverages."

"No interest in sports. A cousin, a boy of fifteen, came to stay with us for several months to finish the school term while his parents were abroad. The boy was a pale, unattractive and uninteresting lad who never took part in any school activities. The children did not exactly welcome his companionship. We were hard workers and hard players and Harold was too indifferent."

"At our first meal, he voiced his preference for a caffeine beverage. Another had none but offered him Postum. At first he refused, then, seeing our evident enjoyment of it, he decided to try it. He continued to drink it, and soon came to like it."

Gardner and Dering roads and the Waghtown road to center church. J. L. French, constable of Perry township, reported that a railing is needed on the road from Arch to the Glasser bridge.

Constable Samuel C. Smith of the 6th ward reported that both ends of Front street and O'Brien avenue are in bad shape.

Attention of supervisors will be called to the complaints by the court.

Hodge Files Suit Against The City To Collect $25,000

Unable To Effect A Compromise On Price And Case Will Now Be Tried

J. R. Hodge and wife, Bess M. Hodge, this morning filed a suit at the prothonotary's office against the City of New Castle to recover $25,000 for property taken for the erection of the new bridge at North street.

An effort has been made to effect a compromise of the case, but the city and Mr. Hodge have been unable to reach an agreement on the price. As the case now stands it will go to trial in court and witnesses will be summoned on both sides to testify as to the value of the property.

Goldfish Unharmed By $400,000 Blaze

AKRON, March 5.—A bowl of goldfish offered a new problem to firemen here, searching the ruins of an apartment house destroyed by a blaze which caused damage of approximately $400,000.

Although an aquarium filled with goldfish was badly damaged by flames on the second floor, the fish were apparently unharmed by the changes in temperature.

Firemen were driven from the scene soon after the blaze started and it was not until 24 hours later they were able to re-enter the apartments on that floor.

Bus And Truck Interests Oppose State Proposals

Tax Increases Are Suggested In State For Buses And Trucks

(From News Bureau, State Capital)

HARRISBURG, March 5.—Representatives of the bus and truck interest in the state are expected to appear here in force to oppose the three proposals before the legislature that would increase their operating costs. In past sessions they have successfully managed to dodge any tax increases but this year they may not be so fortunate.

The latest suggested tax increase for truck and bus companies is a bill of Representative Wheeler, Forest, which would make them subject to the gross receipts tax. A session or two ago a similar suggestion was made but the truck and bus interests were able to continue in the exempted class.

Wheeler's bill would include a number of public service companies that now are free of paying the tax. He estimates it would bring in more than $1,000,000 every biennium.

Changes in the motor code introduced with administration backing provide for doubling the license fees on trucks and buses. Representatives of the motor transport companies are reported as willing to pay a portion of the proposed increase.

The third possible increase for the truck and bus companies is in the form of any change upward in the gas tax.

Persons interested in truck and bus companies contend that the state should not tax them out of business by advancing their fees. On the other hand operators of passenger cars claim that most of the damage to the roads are caused by the big trucks and buses. They also say that the motor buses are cutting into the steam and electric railroads who must pay heavy maintenance costs for miles of track. The state pays the upkeep of the roads that are used for the trucks and buses as a means of conducting their business.

Chas. C. Rawlins Dies On Monday

Prominent Railroad Man Dies At Home Of Daughter In Youngstown, O.

Charles Campbell Rawlins, 58, resident of the New Wilmington road, and prominent Pennsylvania railroad man here, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harold Kerr of Youngstown, O., Monday evening at six o'clock. Death was caused by heart disease.

The deceased, for 20 years with the Pennsylvania railroad here, and a foreman in the engineering house, was a member of the Highland U. P. church, and held membership in the local Elks lodge, Modern Woodmen of America, and the Veterans Association of the Pennsylvania railroad.

He left home here for a short visit at the home of his daughter, apparently feeling well, although he had been ailing for some time. Shortly after his arrival there, a sudden heart attack caused his death.

He was born March 2, 1871 in Bedford, Indiana, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Rawlins. With his wife, Jennie Francis Dailey Rawlins, he moved to this city in 1902 and since that time has been associated with the railroad firm with which he worked until his death on Monday evening.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday, March 6, at 2:30 p. m. from the residence on the Wilmington road. Due to the absence of Dr. C. J. Williamson, Rev. S. J. Purvis of the Memorial Presbyterian church of Youngstown will officiate. Burial will be made in Oak Park cemetery. The body was brought to his late home this afternoon.

The deceased is survived by his wife at his home on the Wilmington road, two daughters, Mrs. Nellie M. Price and Mrs. Harold Kerr of Youngstown, Ohio, and three sisters and three brothers, all living at distant points.

Ingrown Nail Turns Right Out! Pain Stops Instantly!

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

A few drops of "Outgro" in the crevice of the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so softens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

SHE THOUGHT HER CASE HOPELESS

Yet ALL-BRAN Brought Relief Almost Immediately—No Trouble Since

When constipation once gets a grip on a person, it is almost impossible to relieve it, let alone prevent it with drugs and treatments. But here's a lady who was freed from her suffering—read her letter.

"I have an extreme case of constipation and although I had tried almost everything that was recommended to me, I had almost given up hopes of ever being relieved. One day I came across your advertisement, so I thought I would try ALL-BRAN. It relieved me almost immediately and I have had no trouble since, which was almost three months ago."—Mrs. P. E. Leslie, 2194 Lyman St., Flint, Michigan.

Your system must have roughage or bulk daily, otherwise constipation is almost inevitable. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will supply this bulk. It is a healthful cereal to eat every day. To use in cooked dishes or serve with milk or cream. To mix with other cereals.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation and to prevent it. Far better than pills and laxatives whose doses often have to be increased to be effective. Two tablespoonsful daily—chronic cases, with every meal. It is 100% bran and is 100% effective. Doctors recommend it. Your grocer sells it. Served by hotels, restaurants, dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Funds Of County Shown In Report Of Co. Treasurer

Poor Department Compelled To Work On Borrowed Money Until Taxes Come In

Lawrence county has $32,306.59 in the treasury, according to a statement made by County Treasurer Adda M. Smiley to the county commissioners this morning. The amount is distributed as follows: General fund, $291,331.18; gasoline fund, $22,335.58; poor fund, $18,639.20.

As the poor fund was exhausted at the close of 1928, the county commissioners had to borrow $30,000 to run the poor department until the 1929 taxes begin to come in. The $18,639.20 is all the balance remaining of this borrowed money.

Owing to the rapid depletion of the funds, the commissioners are finding it necessary to cut down the allowances which are being made in this department. In some instances they are being cut out altogether. New cases are being given a thorough investigation, as it has been found that there has been a disposition to take advantage of the relief department.

The commissioners are ready to help the really deserving, but with a limited income, help cannot be handed out promiscuously. A case in point occurred yesterday when a member of a charitable institution reported a family in very bad circumstances and badly in need of help. Investigation of the case showed that the head of the family had a job and was at work and the circumstances were nothing like they had been reported. It is believed that the person making the report had been misled through false information.

Croton School Pupils To Present Operetta

Quietly but energetically have the teachers and pupils alike at the Croton school been planning and practicing for the three-act musical operetta which the children of Croton will give next Thursday afternoon and Friday night in the production of the Benjamin Franklin Junior High School.

For weeks past work on the operetta "Lost A Comet" has been steadily taking form, although the outside world knew little of it. Now, however, everything is different, and the time for the operetta is near. Proceeds to finance projects for the school library and band.

Teachers who are supervising the operetta say that more than 150 children of the Croton school will take part in this show, the first of its kind in Croton has given during the past two years. It is expected to be one of the most colorful affairs given at the school.

Others who co-star with Tony are Ben Franklin school for some time and a few of the multi-colored costumes that were exhibited in Monday afternoon's practice would very likely attract to that.

The teachers directing the operetta had the children go through the first act of the operetta and the second act and the benefit of a News reporter who act, another solo dancer, of talent.

NICE WORDS WON'T DYE a dress or coat...

Neither pretty pictures nor colorful adjectives will dye a dress or coat. It takes real dyes to do the work; dyes made from true anilines.

Next time you have going to do, try Diamond Dyes. See how easy it is to use them. I am tempted by results. Your dealer will refund your money if you don't agree they are better dyes.

You get more of that ready-to-look from Diamond Dyes: no streaking or spotting. Just fresh, crisp, bright new color. And watch the way they keep their brilliance through wear and washing. They are better dyes because they contain plenty of real anilines—three to five times more than other dyes. But you pay no more for them than for ordinary dyes.

The white package of Diamond Dyes is the original "all-purpose" dye for any and every kind of material. It will dye or the silk, wool, cotton, linen, rayon or any mixture of materials. The blue package is a special dye for silk or wool only. With it you can dye your valuable articles of silk or wool with results equal to the finest professional work. Remember, this when you buy. The blue package dyes silk or wool only. The white package will dye every kind of goods, including silk and wool. Your dealer has both packages.

SUFFERED FROM CATARRH FROM BOYHOOD; TROUBLES ENDED

"No one in New Castle believes in World's Tonic more than I do," says Mr. J. Jackson of W. Falls St., New Castle, "and I think it is only my duty to let others know what a wonderful medicine it is. That is why I am giving this statement for publication. From boyhood I suffered from a peculiar stomach trouble that impaired my general health in many ways. I treated for catarrh and in one instance some one suggested that I might have a cancer. I would feel fairly well after 10:00 o'clock every morning, but up to that hour I had all the aches and pains that a person could have, and to save my life, I can't see why it never got me past going. When I got up every morning my appetite was good and I would eat breakfast. "For this hearty meal, before or by the time I reached my work I would vomit everything that I would put in my stomach at the breakfast table, and then I would get weak and get dizzy for sometime. I don't believe that anybody ever had to go through more than I did and still be

POLL AND POLL AT PLAY

As Peter finished his story, Miss Parrot dropped her head and covered her eyes with her wings, and the boy heard a strange sniffling sound. The poor bird was weeping. "Oh, oh, oh!" sobbed Polly. "Now, I shall never see my long lost cousin. Such a dear little parrot as she was, too! I shall never forget the last time I saw her. She was lying on the ground with her wings bent under her and her feathers drooping—so different from my gay playmate. It was partly my fault, too!"

"You see, Polly and I had been out playing all the morning. Parrots, as you probably know, just love to hop and to run and to crawl, but it is hard work for some of us to fly, thought when we really learn to fly, it is strong and rapid."

"To a Carolina Parrot is nothing to be ashamed of. I can tell you. Some people say that Parrots can't fly at all. Don't you believe them. We can. Well, anyhow, Cousin Polly and I were just nestlings then, and the day on which the accident happened was almost the first one on which we had dared to go off by ourselves and try our wings. Oh, dear, oh, dear! Cousin and I can never fly together again!"

Miss Parrot stopped talking and commenced to sniffle again. "But you haven't flown together in a long, long time, so I wouldn't worry about that," suggested the boy, gently, and at his words Miss Parrot looked up and wiped away her tears.

"That is so, we haven't," agreed

she. "It makes me cry, though, to think that we might have." "But what made Polly fall to the ground?" asked the boy curious to hear Miss Parrot's side of the story, for not yet was he quite certain that his Poll and her cousin were the same.

"To tell the truth I never quite knew," replied his companion, sadly. "Polly and I had been having great fun. We had played hide and seek—she would hide behind a branch and I would search the trees over until I found her."

"Say, you ought to have seen us play tag! I would hop upon a tree trunk and call 'ready' and Poll would come after and try her best to catch me."

"Around and around and up and down I would go, and if she but so much as touched the tip of my tail feathers with her beak it was my turn to be it."

"Dear little cousin! What a merry playmate she was!"

Miss Parrot wiped her eyes with her wing.

Next: "Sad End of a Perfect Day."

FALLS FROM HAYMOW, LITTLE GIRL INJURED

CORRY, Pa., March 5.—Dorothy, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ishman, R. D. Spartansburg, was brought to the Corry hospital yesterday for X-ray and treatment as a result of a fall while playing in the haymow on the farm.

Climbing

First, Ziegfeld picked her for his "Pollies." Next, she was chosen for "Rio Rita" and now Warner Brothers will present her in the movies. Dainty Arnes Francy is climbing; helped by clever dancing and seldom equalled beauty.

Miss Francy says: "I don't believe in overlooking anything which helps add to your attractiveness. I am most particular about my hair and so many friends compliment me on its softness and lustre that I am sure my method of caring for it is right. Nearly all the girls I know here in New York are using it, now. It is so easy. All we do is put a little Danderine on our brushes each time we dress our hair. It makes my hair easy to dress and holds it in place wonderfully. It has gotten rid of my dandruff. It keeps my hair and scalp so comfortable, that I don't shampoo half as often as I did before. And best of all, it gives my hair a softer, more silky and lustrous appearance than anything I've ever found."

Danderine quickly removes that oily film from your hair; brings out its natural color, makes it fairly sparkle! Dandruff usually disappears when you use Danderine. Waves, "set" with it, stay in longer. It's delicately fragrant, isn't oily, doesn't show, it's economical. The 35c bottles will last several weeks. All drug stores recommend and guarantee it.

EDITORIALS: WRIGHT COMMENTS

I am disappointed in not hearing from Mr. Sines in response to my letter of enquiry of February 19. But Mr. Sines has no information that will help us with our rabbit problems, and wishes to return the furs assessed on us; for solving them in our own way. We will be agreeable and accept them.

We are inclined to think from our own observations and experiments that his plan to deport destructive rabbits will be neither practical nor economical. Early in the winter after Mr. Sines failed to answer letters of enquiry, I deported a grizzly old patriarch that I knew by sight to the Aso Hoffmeister woods five miles away.

He hopped back within ten days and looked very reproachful at me when I found him getting in his usual place. To be fair with the game commissioner the last two I have caught red handed, eating my little trees and delivered to Deputy Game Protector Robert McClellan to find new homes for, have not returned.

Rabbits go where the conditions and feed suits them best. If our surplus would be taken east of the Shenandoah, many would only stay till the ice went and enable them to hop across. Travelers on moonlight nights would see the most discontented ones using the Harbor and Nashua bridges. The only practical way would be to

SNOW COSTS $5,000 HERE

Spend Approximately $5,000
In County For Snow Work
This Year On High-ways

In the neighborhood of $5,000 will be the cost of snow to the Lawrence county state highway department during this winter, states W. W. Lightner, maintenance superintendent of the local state highway district.

This expense is due to a number of different items in the way of protection from snow as well as the plowing of the highway. From 10,000 feet of snow was created in the fall and will have to be taken down and stored; many loads of ashes were sprinkled on icy hills; and snow plows worked a number of days clearing snow from the roads.

This expense, however, stated Lightner, is slightly lower than in the neighboring counties. Due to elevations here, the snow does not drift in as many different locations and consequently there is less cost.

Has Comedy Part In School Play

MARY ELIZABETH WAGNER

The considerable number of friends of the senior high school players who never lose an opportunity to see the class in dramatics when it presents a public performance, will see in "Kenny" a cast of evenly balanced abilities. Miss Mary Elizabeth Wagner of Wampum will have a distinctly comical part, that of "Ma Bence," mother of the marketable daughter whose unwillingness to cooperate in the family's matrimonial projects for her creates the most of the uproariously ridiculous scenes in the play. "Ma Bence" is a rather ineffectual type of parent in her relation to her three blooming daughters. Her special accomplishment consist in a tendency to faint at inopportune times. Miss Wagner makes the most of what is easily a first-rate "character" role. She plays spark to the tinder of poor old "Pa Bence's" irascibility.

This Penn. Girl is Happy Now

The quick, easy way those ailments of children, such as headaches, feverishness, biliousness, coated tongue, bad breath, no appetite or energy, etc., simply vanish with the first few doses of California Fig Syrup, is always a surprise to those who use this fine old medicine for the first time. Weak, puny, restless and cross children never fail to pick up weight and gain strength and energy under its gentle influence. It stimulates the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels and gives these organs tone and strength so they continue to act normally of their own accord.

A well-known Pennsylvania mother, Mrs. P. Reilly, 5258 Rodman St., Philadelphia, says: "Marguerite is a rosy-cheeked, bright-eyed and happy, now; but we had a lot of trouble with her. Her stomach and bowels seemed to be weak. She suffered from constipation and biliousness until she was fretful and peevish most of the time. Then we gave her some California Fig Syrup and her trouble stopped quick. We kept on giving it to her and soon she was well and strong."

Be sure to ask for California Fig Syrup by the full name so you'll get the genuine, endorsed by physicians for over 50 years.

Rain Causes Terrific Railroad Station Jam Of Inaugural Visitors

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The great exodus from the capital was in progress today.

Thousands of inaugural visitors thronged Union station in a scramble to get home. Most of them carried their grandchildren how wet they were. Herbert Hoover inaugurated the 30th president of the United States.

Railroad officials were better equipped to handle the enormous crowds today and said there would be no repetition of the scene late yesterday when 50,000 visitors jammed Union station all at once, clamoring for transportation.

The rain was responsible for the jam, for it caused many visitors to decide to go home earlier than had been anticipated. Ordinarily, railroad officials said, a majority of the visitors might be expected to remain overnight and go sight-seeing today, but the rain interfered.

Throughout the night and this morning harassed railroad men were making up special trains and dispatching them into the rain.

New Bedford Woman's Summoned To Higher Court

Campbell, New Bedford, Pa., and Mrs. Charles Eppinger, Connecticut Lake, O., one brother, John, West Austonia, O., and two sisters, Mrs. John Kane, Youngstown, O., and Mrs. Frank Brand, of Salem, O.

RUTLER, Pa., March 5.—Two women of Butler county, drawn on the March grand jury several weeks ago, were reported dead today when their names were called at the opening of the March term by Judge James M. Galtbreath.

The two women who did not live to begin their duties as jurors were Mrs. Ella Hamilton of Mercer township and Mrs. Mary J. Wick of Second ward, Butler.

Big Charity Ball Ends Gala Day

Curtis Is Honor Guest As Officials And Citizens Mix And Dance

WASHINGTON, March 5.—A great charity ball climaxed the inauguration celebration Monday night.

Against a background of flags of all nations the high and the low of American citizenry rubbed elbows at Washington auditorium and danced.

The ball was the grand opportunity for Judy O'Grady to be a real sister to the colonels' lady in the big American democratic style.

Vice President Curtis was the guest of honor. The huge auditorium was thronged with officials of the incoming and outgoing administrations. Members of the diplomatic corps were there, residential society was well represented, and there were thousands of guests.

The ball, managed by Mrs. John A. Dougherty, Washington society woman, was given for local charities. Mrs. Dougherty has managed the last three inaugural charity balls. The last "official" ball having marked Taft's incoming.

Unofficial balls, like the present, are not attended by the new president, but especially honor the new vice president.

Mr. Curtis arrived with Mrs. E. E. Cahn, his sister and hostess, on his arm. Mrs. Cahn was in silver lace. They followed an impressive parade across the floor by the governors of fourteen states and their spouses.

The governors, headed by Gov. Trumbull of Connecticut, marched in with their suites while the Marine and Army bands played state airs. Guests had formed an aisle for the party.

As the party got to the platform the persons comprising it were introduced formally to Mrs. Dougherty and then to Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick. Mrs. McCormick, representative-at-large from Illinois, was chairman of patronesses and described the ball over the radio.

In Gov. Trumbull's party were his wife and daughter, Florence, and John Coolidge, a major on the staff of his father-in-law.

Mrs. General Hubbard, who is a well known lawyer here, was seated on the platform with the vice president's family.

The vice president and Mrs. Cahn were escorted to their places by a band of full-blooded Indians in deference to Mr. Curtis' Indian blood.

from a car parked along the Midland highway near the Ohio state line. Mrs. Iva Little, 23, of East Liverpool, O., was killed by a coupe driven by Edward Murphy of Midland. She suffered a broken neck and a fractured skull. Mrs. Little leaves three small children and her husband, Roy Little.

Bank Robber Buys New Auto With Loot

ZANESVILLE, O., March 5.—Bernard Maynard, 22, confessed to poisoning her today, completed in a daring daylight bank robbery, staged February 27 at the Hicksville (O.) National bank, when approximately $2,000 in cash was stolen. He implicated three other men named Kuwacki, Stevens and Halderman, but claimed he did not know their given names. Kuwacki and Stevens are under arrest in Maumee, Ind., and Halderman is still at large. The loot was divided equally among the quartet. Maynard receiving $2,000. He was arrested in a new coupe paid for with a part of the loot from the bank.

Wet Inauguration In Several Ways

WASHINGTON, March 5.—It was a wet inauguration in more ways than one.

While the thousands of visitors were getting drenched to the skin, Washington police blotters recorded 148 charges of intoxication. Most of those arrested forfeited collateral in police courts.

Liquor prices sky-rocketed for the inauguration.

The combination of the heavy penalties of the new Jones bill and 215,000 visitors gave the bootleggers a good excuse to more than double the figures at which their dubious wares could be obtained.

Keep Stomach Young!

Eat What You Want

When the food you eat goes into your acid-soaked stomach, it sours and can't digest, makes food gas and sour bile. The blood takes these poisonous acids and carries them through the body. Naturally it makes you miserable and dependent, because your system is not nourished—you lose weight.

Pape's Digestin dissolves the acids and sweetens the stomach. It digests the food; no more sour bile is taken up by the blood. Your appetite is like a youngster's again, and gradually you get back your health, flesh and energy.

Chew a tablet or two of Pape's Digestin after meals. It tastes good, and relieves the misery of indigestion in five minutes. It will keep your stomach young and vigorous so you can eat anything you want without being afraid of the consequences.

Fire Insurance Stabilizes Credit

WITHOUT fire insurance, credit—the medium and means of business expansion—would be almost wholly curtailed. Through the credit system with the security afforded by fire insurance, loans are made to aid in building homes, mercantile and manufacturing establishments and general commercial development. Credit finds insurance indispensable to its safe continuance.

Without fire insurance, bankers—real estate men, contractors, building and loan organizations and others who grant credit on future developments would doubtless consider the risks to be taken in making loans too hazardous to contemplate.

Without fire insurance "modern business," monumental cities, gigantic construction projects, large production, new sub-divisions to take the cities' overflow—would not have been possible.

Finance and insurance work together in promoting the Nation's building activities, in supporting its manufacturing, distribution of goods and employment of labor.

In the development and support of our great structure of credit, stock fire insurance—as written by the 229 companies constituting the National Board of Fire Underwriters—has carried and will continue to carry the major load of the underlying responsibility and this at a cost that on the average has constantly declined for more than twenty years.

State Health Secretary Again Warns Of Colds

"So much has been said and heard on the subject of the common cold that it has indeed become common in more senses than one. But the sad fact remains that thus far the very simple rules established for individual prevention appear to have been largely disregarded by many," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, state secretary of health, today.

"Consider, for example, the question of contact in the home. A family of five recently had colds at the same time. Investigation proved that the father returned from work one night with a pronounced cold affecting his throat. Instead of limiting his greetings, as he should have done, to pleasant words he kissed his entire family and was especially active along this line with his infant son. The infant son caught the father's cold and finally died of pneumonia, but not before all the others had made a full recovery and thus contracted colds themselves.

"While an unfortunate case, this sort of things is by no means unusual. As a matter of fact, this is happening in many a home where carelessness and thoughtlessness reign instead of common sense.

"People must be made to realize that when suffering from colds they are in a highly contagious condition, and being thus, every precaution should be exercised by them. And in this connection it is merely fundamental wisdom to express one's affection in words rather than to spread disease by physical contact or to pass on their germs by carelessness in the use of eating utensils and common towels.

"It is safe to say that if this rule were followed by all those who carry home a fresh cold, the millions of secondary infections that crop out in families could to a large extent be diminished. This would result in a tremendous health conservation and would save many members of families from death, whose first step in that direction is just a cold.

"Therefore, do not permit sentiment and affection to get the better of your judgment when you are playing unwilling host to that general enemy of mankind, the cold."

Summon Witnesses In Borkoski Case

PITTSBURGH, March 5.—Subpoenas were to be served today on witnesses in connection with the John Borkoski murder. It was learned here today from George W. Murren, chief county detective. Borkoski was fatally beaten February 5, in the Imperial barracks of the coal and iron police employed by the Pittsburgh Coal company, allegedly by three coal and iron policemen.

W. J. Lyster, a former Lieutenant, H. P. Watts and Frank Siapakis, former privates, are in the county jail here, having been ordered held for the murder by a coroner's jury. The commissions of the three men as coal and iron police were revoked by Gov. Fisher.

The witnesses are to appear before the grand jury sometime this week. District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner said. If the men are indicted, Gardner stated he would call the case for early trial.

Veterans' Bureau Sends Allowances

Families Of Ex-Service Men Are Repaid For Expenses Of Funeral

HUNTINGDON, Pa., March 5.—Instructing her little son, Dean, 8, Monday morning to look after his 3-year-old brother and sister, twins, during her absence, Mrs. Julie Dittsworth of West township went to the barn to do some chores. In the meantime Dean picked up a 22-calibre rifle and in some unexplained manner shot the twins, killing her instantly.

Little Dean hurried to his mother at the barn to inform her of the accident by stating he "didn't know the rifle was loaded." Mrs. Dittsworth found the twin daughter dead on reaching the house.

Nobody seems to take any notice of what the King of Italy is thinking about—or doesn't he?—The Janesville Gazette.

Checks in settlement of burial allowance claims are now being received in this city from the veterans' bureau. It is learned at local headquarters of the American Red Cross.

The checks, made out for 1907, are being sent to those who have right put in their claim for the payment. Dependents of ex-service men who died prior to April 6, 1917, and whose total assets, exclusive of insurance and other benefits, did not exceed $1,000, can rightly make claim for the allowance.

All dependents who know that such was the case should call at the Red Cross here and make application for the allowance immediately. No charge is made for the service.

Dear Colonel:
Your very kind letter to Lieutenant

He informed me he could not comhave the authority to date the or-should have made application to be relieved at that time.

Having learned Captain Anderson was in the city I called to see him but owing to his having been relieved he could not do anything in the mat-

will not relieve you, you can have it done by making application to head-

You speak of having us all relieved

A New Standard in Electric Refrigeration The New KELVINATOR

"The Super-Quiet Compressor That Stays Quiet"

With These Features

NEW SILENCE
NEW BEAUTY
NEW DESIGN
NEW PRICES
NEW GUARANTEE

NEW SILENCE

The new KELVINATOR is made quiet by eliminating the noise making factors found in ordinary manufacture. The new KELVINATOR does not depend for its silence on any of the so-called noise mufflers of either steel or wood to deaden any noise that may be produced, having every part statically and dynamically balanced eliminates noise at its source so there is nothing to muffle.
The new KELVINATOR is not just quiet, it is Super-Quiet and stays that way.

NEW BEAUTY

Every line on the new KELVINATOR is designed for practical beauty. Easy to look at and easy to be proud of. In fact, it is THE STYLE for 1929.
The lines of this machine are no doubt years ahead of the industry at present, nevertheless they will be appreciated by discriminating folk. Both the interior and exterior are either the new velvet finish porcelain with inlaid porcelain trim or gleaming white enamel, both of which are set off by the new chromium plated hardware.

NEW DESIGN

The design of the new KELVINATOR is simplicity in itself. It has fewer parts than any of the other Kelvinators designed. New features have been added. Extreme new strength has been built into the machine. It has the new Kelvinator patented tubular metal frame. Is equipped with the low speed extra powerful motor which gives it 25% more capacity than any load to which it might be subjected. The rearrangement of the shelf space inside utilizes all available space to the greatest degree. In addition to these features, the new KELVINATORS have tremendous ice freezing capacity—something long sought for and now realized for the first time in electric refrigeration.

NEW GUARANTEE

We have so much confidence in this new KEL-VINATOR that we are willing to place back of it the broadest guarantee that has ever been placed on any make of electric refrigerator to the present time. We can only do this because first, we are the oldest and most experienced manufacturers of electric refrigeration for the home; second, because our machine has been time tested in the field and is not based upon laboratory tests; third, our factory equipment permits us to have limits of 1/10,000th of an inch.

NEW PRICES

Made as it is, in the most modern, most efficient and greatest factory in the industry, these new KELVINATORS carry prices not believed possible a short time ago in this industry. One of the new KELVINATORS may be purchased for as little as

$195.00

Completely Installed

SEE FOR YOURSELF

We cannot urge you too strongly to see this new machine at the earliest possible date. It is years ahead of the industry in all of its features.

These New KELVINATORS will be on Display for the first time at

Your Part In Broadway and Mine

BY WALTER WINCHELL

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to The New Castle News

NEW YORK, March 5.—Expressions probably have changed on the small-time. When we knew it away back in the early '20s the retort to the query: "What became of the girl he went with on the Pan Time?" was "Oh, you know. He loved her, but the season closed." When you are asked: "Where do you go next week?" you replied: "I'm layin' off," and you were trumped with: "Great! I'm on the same bill with you."

If the stage crew disturbed you by making noise while you were doing your act you always chirped: "Set 'em up in the other alley!" and when you introduced your wife to a friend, you were considered clever if you said: "Meet the wife, and don't laugh," or "Meet the wife—but not too often."

There doesn't ever have to be an end! The close of day is but the start of night. The finish of each mountain path you wind Is where begins some even greater height.

And even when the close of life has come, 'Tis but the threshold of infinity. For all your days, the final, total sum Is small compared to what still is to be.

There is no end, and things are never done; No voyage ends—there's e'er another sea. But this I know, I know, my precious one, To lose your love would be the end for me.

—George D. Lottman.

THE MORNING MAIL

Chicago, Ill.

I suppose that you will be surprised to hear from me after so long a time, but I have been out here in Chicago, where even the chorus boys carry pearl-handled blackjacks. I have been working the picture houses out here, and, unaccustomed as I am to Public theaters, I have been doing fine. My grandmother is also doing good out here—she is making quite a lot of money exhibiting grandpa, as he is the only one out here ever to die a natural death.

This sure is a hot town. I have only been out here about seven murders, and last night I went out to get in my car after the last show, and, as usual, one of the spare tires was missing. I immediately went out front and told the manager about the theft, and when I left his office I couldn't find my watch.

"LENT AND MY CHURCH"

Memory Verse for Tuesday

"Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you" (John 15:14). (Read: 1 John 4:11 to 21.)

MEDITATION: I find that my social life is largely confined to the people of my own church. This is to me a gracious thing. It is friendship sanctified by a common faith. These people share with me as no others can my joys and sorrows. Their faith confirms and supports my own. My constant contact with them tends to correct my faults and to hold me to a high standard of Christian conduct. When trouble or sorrow comes they do not desert me but are drawn closer to me. How much I owe to my friends in my church! Am I at all repaying the debt? For I must do good to all but especially to those who are of my own household of faith.

PRAYER: Heavenly Father who hast knit us together in the friendship of Christ Jesus, teach us to love one another with a pure heart, fervently, and ever to be careful for each other's welfare in the Lord. In His name. Amen.

MOTION PICTURES

AT JACKSON SCHOOL

Students of the North Beaver township consolidated school at Mt. Jackson were shown pictures early this afternoon of a Biblical and educational nature. Pictures of this type are shown on the school screen once each month.

"Nothing stirs the heart like soft, smooth skin,"

say 39 leading motion picture directors

A GIRL with lovely skin, petal-smooth, has a delightful sense of confidence. She knows that she wins hearts wherever she goes.

Hollywood has found that it is only the girl with exquisite skin whose charm really wins and holds the great public.

As Lewis Milestone, Paramount director, puts it: "Smooth, exquisite skin is more captivating than anything else about a girl. A screen star especially must have perfect skin—for the cleverest make-up can't fake it under the fierce lights of the close-up."

"The girls who have achieved stardom," he goes on to say, "though they differ widely in type, all have this essential beauty of marvelous skin."

9 out of 10 screen stars keep their skin smooth with Lux Toilet Soap

When the popular close-up is being taken, the glare from the new incandescent "sun-spot" lights streams down on the screen star, and any defect in her skin would inevitably be registered on the highly sensitized film.

This is why, of the 451 important Hollywood actresses, including all stars, 442 are devoted to Lux Toilet Soap. They have found that this delicately fragrant white soap gives their skin the satin-smoothness necessary for the close-up.

In fact, so delighted are they with this soap that it has been made the official soap in the dressing rooms of all the great film studios.

You will be charmed with Lux Toilet Soap, too. Try it—today. Remember: nine out of ten screen stars use it for smooth skin.

MARY BRIAN, exquisite little Paramount star, in the bathroom of dark marble and gray-green tile which is one of the most luxurious built in Hollywood.

She is one of the 442 important screen actresses who use Lux Toilet Soap to keep their skin lovely and smooth. She says: "The charm of a perfect skin is a social asset to any woman, but for a star it is a business necessity, too! That's why so many stars guard the smoothness of their skin with Lux Toilet Soap—it certainly keeps 'studio skin' in perfect condition."

Why Doctor Reynolds Insists on Milk of Magnesia in Tablet Form

The Doctor's Verdict.

"Yes, Lac-Ma Wafers, I always insist on my patients using Lac-Ma when the need of a Milk of Magnesia is indicated. Liquid magnesia precipitates while Lac-Ma gives assurance of accurate dosages and are pleasant and easy to take."

Again science has triumphed and today the medical and dental professions are prescribing Lac-Ma Wafers.

Children Love Lacma.

Children who fight against taking unpalatable liquid magnesia actually crave Lacma Wafers, because they taste like candy.

Lacma Wafers Economical.

Lacma Wafers keep perfectly under all conditions. You get more for your money as there are 100 teaspoonful in each package. No danger of freezing or precipitating.

Lacma Wafers Convenient.

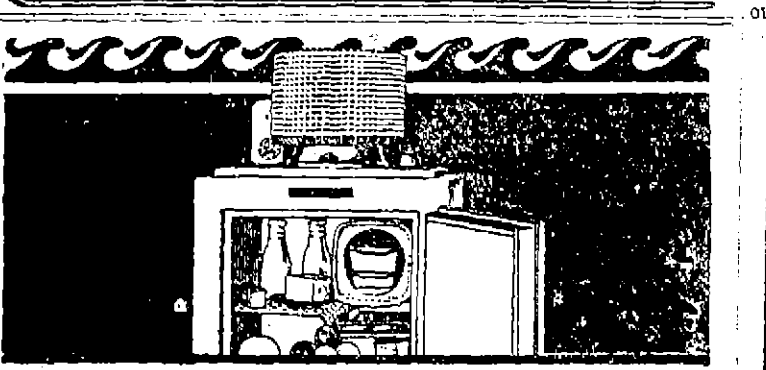

Lacma comes in an attractive package which, due to Lacma being concentrated, can be carried in your vest pocket. Remember it is not necessary to add water to Lacma—of course you can if you wish—but Lacma will dissolve quickly if just placed upon the tongue.

Use Lacma Regularly.

All admit that milk of magnesia should be used for various uses—correct acidity, for bad breath, a gently laxative, cleaning the teeth—and all the various uses for which milk of magnesia has been found so desirable.

Go to your druggist today and ask for a MILK MAGNESIA package of Lacma Wafers. They cost but a few cents. Start using Lacma Wafers and you will never go back to the old methods.

Past Winter Hard On Improved Roads

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., March 4.—The winter or rather the present winter has been the worst on improved highways so far as Mercer County is concerned of many years, it is said by men engaged in building these routes.

The freezing and thawing weather of December and January have resulted in elevations and depressions at joints of concrete surfaced roads that makes the highway one of rough travel for those not cognizant of the condition.

The 10 miles of macadam and concrete between there and Grove City is the roughest now it has been for years. Repairs on the roads will start just as soon as weather condition favor outside work.

My nerves troubled me, and I could not sleep properly. I lost weight, and was in very bad health in a general way."

Your medicine seems to have builded me up in a general way so that I am stronger and gaining weight. ## Hughes Will Hear Canal Arguments

(International News Service)
ALBANY, N. Y., March 5.—Another chapter in the fight of the states of New York, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Ohio to halt diversion of Great Lakes waters by the Chicago Drainage District will be written at Chicago March 35, before Charles Evan Hughes, sitting as special master by designation of the United States Supreme Court.

These states will contend that sewage disposal facilities now at hand for Chicago should permit a curtailment of 1,000 cubic feet of water per second in the diversion, rather than 8,500 cubic feet as now obtains.

The states in the litigation that has been conducted through the lower courts up through the United States Supreme Court contend that the diversion is jeopardizing shipping on the Great Lakes. New York State will argue that it also causes a tremendous reduction in the flow of water over Niagara Falls.

What is sought by the litigant states is not only an immediate reduction in the amount of water diverted by the drainage system, but the ultimate cessation of the diversion.

Attorney-General Hamilton Ward will present New York State's argument. He will be assisted by Assistant Attorney General Albert Danaher.

(Special To The News)
SLIPPERY ROCK, March 5.—Resolved that the American System of Trial by Jury be Abolished. Constitutionality Conceded. is the question that the Slippery Rock State Teachers College varsity debating team is arguing this year with various other colleges at Pennsylvania. Members of the debating squad have been chosen in January, the work on the question was immediately started.

Donald E. Hoffmaster is the only New Castle student to make the varsity debating squad this year. Members of the squad are as follows: Affirmative—Russell Morgan, Mayer Golden, Ethaline Hartge, Ruth Horowitz and Louis Kaylor. Negative—Alice Dean, Jane Engstrom, Elizabeth Sullivan and Donald E. Hoffmaster. The collecting of material has been progressing at a fair rate of speed so that by March 15, the date of the first dual debate of the season—that with California State Teachers College, the team hopes to be well prepared for the opening of the debating season.

The members of the team were chosen from the Demosthenian Debating club—a club composed of those members of the student body who are interested in debating, and the values to be derived from activity in similar organizations. This year's program is the most extensive that has yet been undertaken by the club. Last year but three dual debates were scheduled, but this year's program consists of debates with six other colleges.

Over Four Billion Needed To Finance Government In 1930

"Lame Duck" Session Of Congress Appropriates Sum Of $3,284,874, 526.77

Governmental Expense Slowly Approaching Mark Set By Late Chairman Madden

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, March 5.—The "lame duck" session of congress appropriated $3,284,874, 526.77 to run the government next year and indefinite appropriations upon which no legislative action was necessary will increase the total to more than $4,600,000,000, a survey of appropriation bills disclosed today.

Congress hewed closely to the line of demarcation set down in President Coolidge's budget, although the total was more than $50,000,000 above the recommendations carried in the budget sent to congress on its opening day.

Closer Harmony.
Supplemental budget estimates, it was declared by house financial experts, virtually made up the difference and brought the legislative and executive branches in close harmony on expenditures.

The ordinary expenditures for the next fiscal year beginning July 1 showed an increase of $32,000,000 over last year's expenditures but a rise in the total of the indefinite expenditures, including debt retirement, indicated that the grand total would run more than $200,000,000 above last year.

Pointing to the Mississippi flood program launched by congress last year, increased cost of the navy, a necessary $30,000,000 to take the census next year, and the normal growth of the government, particularly the postoffice department, which pays much of its expenses out of receipts, house leaders maintained that the congress could not be closed as extravagant.

Need Five Billion Mark.
The steady growth of appropriations, however, appeared to draw nearer the "five billion dollar congress" which the late Chairman Madden of the appropriations committee said was inevitable with the growth of the government and the nation.

More than $1,200,000,000 was voted to run the army and navy next year and to pay the cost of the veterans bureau.

Congressional leaders see likelihood of decreased expenditures in the next few years, unless President Hoover's proposed reorganization of the government should effect some savings. The new navy building program, the necessity of replenishing dwindling war-time army supplies, the Mississippi river flood program, and river and harbor improvements all are likely to demand more funds, it is pointed out.

NORTHAMPTON WELCOMES COOLIDGES

successor in the White House. They had remained aboard since their arrival shortly after one o'clock this morning so all of the town that cared to could be present for the welcome. Most of the town, it seemed, wanted to be present, despite the rain.

The Legion band had arrived early shortly after eight, and serenaded promptly at 8:30 o'clock Mayor Jesse A. G. Andre marshalled the reception committee he had appointed and they climbed aboard the car.

"Mr. Coolidge said the mayor: 'I welcome you. We are happy to have you here.'"

To which the former President replied: "How do you do, Mr. Mayor, glad to see you."

"It is very nice of you," added Mrs. Coolidge, who a second later was embracing Mrs. R. B. Hills, her old schoolmate and intimate friend.

Parade Missing.
Thomas J. Hummard stepped up. He was chairman of the reception committee and a son of John C. Hummard, in whose office Mr. Coolidge studied law. Then came Ralph Hemenway, Mr. Coolidge's former law partner. On his window still remains the legend, "Coolidge and Hemenway," and so on down the line, old friends all glad the Coolidges were back with them once more.

There was no parade as such. A motorcycle escort had been provided to escort the home-coming to their extremely modest residence at 21 Massachusetts street, which is half of a two-family house, renting at $42 a month. Shop-keepers, along Main street came out to wave as the auto swept by, and at Smith College all of the girls were out to shell a greeting.

Bid Farewell To White House

President and Mrs. Coolidge leaving the First Congressional church for the last time as President and First Lady of the land.

A little farther on, they passed a scene dear in the memory of Mrs. Coolidge—Clarke school for the deaf, where she was a teacher at the time she first met her husband. A two-million dollar drive for funds for the institution went over the top just yesterday, with $17,000 in excess. Mrs. Coolidge had been informed just before the train left Washington.

Only one incident marred the home-coming. Sweeping along Main street in the rear of the car carrying Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge, an auto, driven by a police lieutenant, knocked down and seriously injured a little girl, who was rushed to the hospital, at Massachusetts street. Mrs. Alice Eckhardt, the housekeeper, waiting for the president and his family, from top to bottom and attended to all the other thousand and one details incident to such an important event as the return of an ex-president and his wife.

A Boy Scout who belongs to the same troop of which Calvin, Jr., their dead son, was once a member, hoisted the flag to the top of the pole set on the front lawn. Grace and Calvin Coolidge passed inside. They were home once more after an absence of ten years.

Give Out Terms Of Agreement Between Church And State

By GUGLIELMO EMANUEL

International News Service Staff Correspondent

VATICAN CITY, March 5.—The concordat between the Catholic church and Italy, published here today, gives the Holy See supreme authority on all ecclesiastical matters without any interference by the state.

The recognition of this authority was one of the outstanding features of its historic document.

Italy thus renounces the right hitherto enjoyed of confirming or refusing the nomination of Catholic bishops. This right, although never exercised in practice afforded Italy the privilege of granting royal assent or "exequatur" to the papal nominee.

In the future, goods shipped to the Vatican will be admitted duty free. The Italian government stipulated that it would charge no customs upon such consignments.

All embassies and legations accredited to the Vatican will remain upon Italian soil. Even countries having diplomatic relations with the Vatican but none with Italy, will house their envoys upon Italian soil, not church territory.

This clause of the treaty may give rise to complications should they embroiled in war with a country having diplomatic representation at the Vatican.

The catcombs and the sanctuaries at Loreto, Assisi and Padua will be recognized as Vatican property.

It will not be necessary for cardinals and other high prelates of the church journeying to and from Vatican City to obtain an Italian passport visa in the future.

Italy undertakes to guarantee the fullest freedom to meetings convened at the Vatican by the Pope.

The concordat provides that, when a priest is censured by the Ecclesiastical authorities, he cannot hold any more paid state offices. This clause will eliminate from the university chair the famous excommunicated priest Ernesto Bonaiuti, who was dropped from the church because of his modernistic views.

When the church unfrocks a priest the state in the future must see to it that he ceases wearing his ecclesiastical garb.

The concordat states that all school textbooks for religious teaching must be obeyed.

Up to the present time the ministry of justice and culture administered the properties of the church which had been taken over by the state. The revenue from the properties was paid out to the clergy.

Under the terms of the concordat, these properties are returned to the church and the state ceases to act as administrator of them.

As a result of this change Italy will be able to do away with a cumbersome bureaucracy. The Italian budget may be added to the extent of about $1,000,000 annually through the suppression of this branch of the government.

Slain When He Refuses Refund

Slayer Of Employment Bureau Head Is Taken In Custody

PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—Enraged by the refusal of Julius Koffler, 52-year old proprietor of the Acron Employment Service, to return money he had paid for a job, a disgruntled patron today shot and instantly killed Koffler. The shooting took place in the employment office while a large crowd seeking work stood outside in the rain.

Trapped by the thrush of the crowd upon hearing the shot, the slayer was arrested. He was identified as Harry J. McCall, 35, formerly of San Francisco, and a former U. S. Marine, police said.

Police also said he had been arrested in San Francisco on an assault and battery charge and was at one time an inmate of an insane asylum in California.

Apartment Hotel At Parkersburg Ruined By Blast

Dozen Persons At Parkersburg, W. Va., Suffer Injuries In Gas Main Blast

SEARCH RUINS FOR POSSIBLE VICTIMS

Apartment Hotel Is Located In Heart Of Industrial Center

(International News Service)

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 5.—The Backus hotel, a family apartment building located in the industrial section here, is in ruins today from a gas explosion last night, and a dozen persons are in hospital suffering injuries. Police and firemen were continuing their search today to determine if all occupants of the structure had escaped.

Authorities are of the opinion that a leaking gas main caused the blast, which was of such force that the walls collapsed. The force of the explosion was upwards, firemen believe, causing the second floor to be ripped loose and capsizing the walls.

Among the more seriously injured, according to hospital reports are Mrs. L. Longwell, Mrs. Edith Pierce and her three children, Maxine, 6, Donald, 4, and Eloise, 18 months; Evan Longwell, Geneva Parks, and Junior Williams, 2. Lloyd Backus, manager of the hotel was painfully hurt, as were Lawrence Williams and C. S. Smith.

By what police and firemen consider a miracle, fire did not follow the blast and it was possible to rescue 15 persons. Although firemen continued their search through the ruins, it is believed that all residents of the hotel were accounted for.

The case grew out of a coal strike in Johnson county, Arkansas in 1910. The strike resulted in a bitter fight between the owners and miners resulting in martial law being proclaimed and in suits in the federal court.

New Decision In Controversy Over Coal Rate

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today won its appeal to the supreme court to cancel a 20 cent a ton reduction on coal rates from West Virginia, Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee fields to the Great Lakes.

The decision, however, was based upon the fact that the case had become moot by an agreement between railroads on new rates, and was not upon the merits.

Chief Justice Taft, announcing the determination of the court, referred to the agreement of northern and southern railroads made in January 1929, providing a 35 per cent differential in favor of the northern operators. This agreement, made long after the lower court decision, removed the chief issue before the court, he said.

However, since a mere dismissal would leave in effect the injunction of the West Virginia court against the Interstate Commerce Commission, the court reversed the case.

The appeal was the outgrowth of the bitter fight between Pennsylvania and Ohio coal operators and producers in the southern fields, competing for the lake cargo business.

The commission started the rate controversy by ordering railroads serving the Pennsylvania mines to reduce rates 20 cents a ton. Southern operators claimed that this was done because they were securing the lake cargo business a claim denied by the commission.

Southern roads, co-operating with the southern operators also proclaimed a 20 cent a ton reduction, but the Interstate Commerce Commission ordered it canceled on Feb. 21, 1929.

Southern operators appealed to the West Virginia Federal court which held that the commission overstepped its authority.

Lois Dodge Manning Welcomes Divorce

Former Wife Of Horace Dodge Welcomes News Officer; Husband Seeks Divorce

(International News Service)

DETROIT, March 5.—Lois Manning Dodge Manning, wife of Lieutenant Benjamin F. Manning and former wife of Horace Dodge, Jr., smiled here today over reports from San Francisco that Manning desires a divorce because he "found her money intolerable." She smiled again at the suggestion that she might be already contemplating a third marriage—not just now, anyway. "Perhaps not," she might say that I have wanted that divorce as much as he has—I welcome it.

"Please just say this," she continued, "Manning and I have nothing against each other. As for my money, which he says was a curse to him—well, that's too bad. There were times when my money was not such a curse as he would lead one to believe. But, anyway, we're good friends, and I'm glad he's taken his attitude he has."

Pays Fine And Costs For Reckless Driving

Walter Levy was given a hearing before Alderman Walter T. Hamilton this morning on a charge of reckless driving made against him by James Talagaris. The testimony given was to the effect that on last Saturday, Levy sideswiped the car of Talagaris and kept on going, not waiting to see if any damage was done. Levy in his own behalf testified that he had not heard the car come together, neither did he know that anything had happened until he was stopped by Motorcycle Officer Criswell. Following the hearing, Alderman Hamilton assessed Levy a fine of $25 and the costs.

Lois Dodge Manning Welcomes Divorce

Former Wife Of Horace Dodge Welcomes News Officer; Husband Seeks Divorce

(International News Service)

DETROIT, March 5.—Lois Manning Dodge Manning, wife of Lieutenant Benjamin F. Manning and former wife of Horace Dodge, Jr., smiled here today over reports from San Francisco that Manning desires a divorce because he "found her money intolerable." She smiled again at the suggestion that she might be already contemplating a third marriage—not just now, anyway. "Perhaps not," she might say that I have wanted that divorce as much as he has—I welcome it.

"Please just say this," she continued, "Manning and I have nothing against each other. As for my money, which he says was a curse to him—well, that's too bad. There were times when my money was not such a curse as he would lead one to believe. But, anyway, we're good friends, and I'm glad he's taken his attitude he has."

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of American Industry
Leather (Part Three)—Old-Time Leather Workers

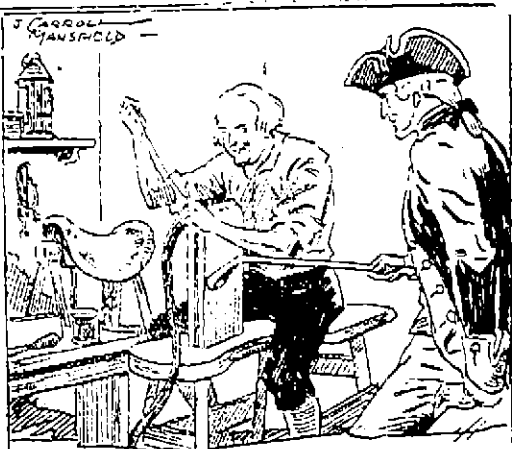

MOST OF THE LEATHER THAT COMES FROM THE TANNERY IS USED BY THE SHOEMAKER. THE FIRST SHOEMAKERS WERE TRAVELING CRAFTSMEN, WHO WENT FROM PLACE TO PLACE PLAYING THEIR TRADE.

BEFORE THE LEATHER REACHED THE SHOE-MAKER AND AFTER IT CAME FROM THE TANNERY, IT PASSED THROUGH THE HANDS OF THE CURRIER. LEATHER FRESH FROM THE TANNERY WAS DRY AND STIFF. THE CURRIER TREATED THE LEATHER WITH VARIOUS SOLUTIONS TO SOFTEN AND PRESERVE IT, DYED IT, AND ROLLED IT WITH HAND TOOLS TO REMOVE THE WRINKLES.

AN IMPORTANT WORKER IN LEATHER DURING COLONIAL TIMES WAS THE HARNESS MAKER. IN THOSE DAYS HORSES AND OXEN SUPPLIED THE ONLY MEANS OF TRACTION, AND STURDY HARNESS FOR FARM ANIMALS AND MORE ORNAMENTAL EQUIPMENT FOR COACH HORSES WAS MUCH IN DEMAND.

SINCE THERE WERE FEW GOOD ROADS, THE MOST TRAVELING WAS DONE ON HORSEBACK, AND THE SADDLER, WHO MADE SADDLES AND BRIDLES, ALWAYS HAD PLENTY OF WORK.

TOMORROW—RISE OF THE SHOEMAKING INDUSTRY.

Willie Davies Outpoints Frisco Grande Here

Fight 10 Fast Rounds At Bowl

Filipino Floors Davies In New Castle Roller Polo Team Fifth And Makes Great Showing

FOUR OTHER GOOD BATTLES STAGED

By ED. FRITZ.
Fishers may come and fishers may go but no two will be able to crowd more fighting into 10 rounds than was staged last night when Willie Davies, Charlestown, captured a close decision over Frisco Grande, the Filipino Flash before a capacity audience at the Jolly Bowl.

Grande made a great showing in the early part of the battle but as the battle neared its end he abandoned his spectacular attack to the body and Davies outboxed the heavy-hitting brown boy. In the fourth Grande floored Davies with a left hook to the stomach and at different periods each were staggered.

According to a recapitulation of the rounds, Grande took the first and fourth, Davies captured the fifth, sixth, eighth, ninth, and the rest were even. Grande not only gave the Westman his greatest fight here but actually made him miss many times during the battle, something which was new to fans here.

While the fourth round was exciting due to Grande flooring Davies the fifth had its earmarks of excitement as Grande sent Willie staggering with a left jab to the head. Davies sent a right to the head, clinched, wrestled Grande to the floor then put a right to the jaw that almost dropped the Filipino.

Fight Viciously
They battled hard, viciously and evenly until the eighth when it was noticeable that the brown boy had abandoned his crowding tactics and Davies made Frisco miss. Davies had an edge in the ninth until Grande staggered Willie with a right to the jaw but it was not sufficient to even the score.

In the tenth they fought to the stomach and Davies jabbed and uppecked. Grande whipped a right to Davies jaw and they slugged, toe to toe and Davies' left missed. Grande sent lefts to the body and Davies jabbed. Grande fought Willie to the ropes but Willie clipped him on the jaw with a right and they were slugging at the bell.

It was the last round of the greatest flyweight battle which has ever been seen in this city and Grande gave Davies his hardest battle. There were some who believed Grande entitled to a draw but Judges Tommy Dunn and "Big Jim" Dunn gave the decision to the Westman. It was a great fight and both showed a lot of class and action.

In fact the show complete, last night was full of fireworks throughout and the semi-final between Chet Smallwood of Terre Haute and Eddie Ruttman of Akron, each 135, was as good as many of the main bouts which the fans see in nearby cities but it lacked the boxing polish of the main bout.

Smallwood Wins
Chet, the southpaw kept sailing lefts to Ruttman's head but the Akronite with dynamite in his right hand landed often but could not hit the elusive

Local Skaters To Meet Oilers Here Tonight At Bowl

To Play Oil City At Jolly Bowl Tonight

Tonight at 9 o'clock the New Castle Roller Polo team will play Oil City. The game will be staged at the Jolly Bowl.

The New Castle team recently met and defeated the Venango county team at the Oil City rink by a 4 to 0 score. Oil City comes here this evening seeking revenge. A good fast game is anticipated by the followers of the New Castle skaters.

Joe Terre Haute on the chin. In the fifth Ruttman was half knocked down when he was punched at the same time as he was hit. At the end of the fight Smallwood was given the award.

Tom O'Leary, 121½, formerly of Wilkes-Barre, now of Cleveland and Jack K. Goldman, 120½, Akron fought a good six round contest. They fought cautiously for two rounds. At the end of the third their action brought cheering from the crowd and when the sixth started O'Leary fought Goldman all over the ring.

The decision was given to O'Leary but our personal opinion is that the battle could have been called a draw but it was a good fight after they got warmed to action.

Johnny Russell of Fayette City, a cumbersome middleweight who did not want to lead took a shellacking from Jimmy Marlowe of Alliquippa in four rounds.

Jennings Scores K. O.
Johnny Jennings of New Castle scored his third knockout when he stopped Al Perone, protege of Patsy Brannigan, Pittsburgh, in the third round. A left to the stomach put Perone down.

Jennings breezed into right in the first and clipped the left to the chin. In the second the battle was even with both batters trying for a knockout.

In the third Patsy's little Italian-American protege slammed into Jennings but raced into a left to the stomach and the punch landed clean on his solar plexus and he tried but couldn't get up.

Patsy and Perone need not feel sorry over the defeat as it was the first time that Perone battled and Jennings carries a wicked punch in his left glove.

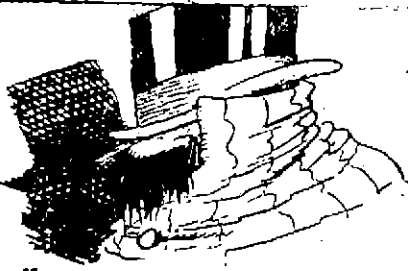

The battles last night were good and the fans found no time to fidget around in their seats. In fact it would be almost impossible to stage a show which contained more action and class.

Preminent Attendance
The referee was George Chip and the judges, Tommy Dunn and "Big Jim" Dunn of New Castle. Timekeeper was Pete Capitola and Larry Gent, deputy-commissioner was in charge.

Six firemen and a squad of police were on the job under the supervision of Chief Lyan and Thomas Lyan. Chief of Police Horner was present as were bankers and professional men.

Promoters from different cities and fans from as far west as Cleveland, south to Pittsburgh and also from Erie, came here to attend the classic which went off like clockwork.

Titans Battle "Dukes" Today In Pittsburgh

Coach Johnny Lawther Takes Westminster Squad To Pittsburgh To Meet Duquesne

BLUE AND WHITE FACES STIFF GAME

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 5.—Coach John Lawther and 10 members of the Westminster team left here at noon today for Pittsburgh where the United Presbyterians will play Chick Davies' Duquesne university passers tonight on the Bluff floor.

With the exception of Tudor Lewis, who is not quite so strong as he was before being injured, the whole Titans outfit is in excellent shape and should give the embattled Dukes plenty of opposition.

Fear has been expressed in many quarters that the Dukes are "laying" for the Titans by way of revenge for the extra-period game at New Wilmington in January which Westminster won by a 28-25 score. At all events, Davies' crew has not played its best ball all season and is bound to play better against the blue and white.

If Tudor Lewis is able to start, Lawther will have the plucky guard in the starting lineup. If not, Chesynski and Fisher will handle the post. The lineup:
Westminster..... Duquesne
O'Donovan..... Benedek
Delahanty..... Lubin
Crowell..... Vernon
T. Lewis..... Rosenborg
Rice..... Stephens

Geneva To Close Excellent Season

Covenanters Ring Down Curtain On Friday Night With Duquesne

BEAVER FALLS, March 5.—Geneva's Covenanters ring down the curtain on a very successful basketball season with an important game with Duquesne university Friday night at Beaver Falls. A win over the Dukes would place Ken Loeffler's Covenanters in a tie with Bethany as winners of the Tri-State Conference. Two years ago the situation with respect to Geneva and Duquesne was somewhat reversed. The last game with Geneva, lost by Duquesne, in the last second of play, placed the Dukes to share a tie with Waynesburg. Again last year a Geneva victory in the last second deprived Duquesne of a championship tie with Westminster. The Covenanters are thirsting for their first basketball championship in ten years and the coach and players are working their hardest to obtain it. Duquesne has not forgotten the havoc wrought their prospects by Geneva the past two years.

The intramural championship of the conference will also be decided Friday night when Geneva and Duquesne will clash in the preliminary. The Geneva Reserves will clash with the Zelenka Independents coached by Todd Lloyd at 7 o'clock.

Seek Successor To Tex Rickard

Madison Square Garden Corporation Seeks Man To Fill Late Tex's Shoes

By DAVIS J. WALSH.
Special Editor, International News Service.
NEW YORK, March 5.—Having shed a lot of Hollywood tears for two months over the passing of a great promoter, the time has come for the Garden Corporation to step back into character and be itself. It has discharged its obligation to Tex Rickard's memory with only the customary amount of sulking; so naturally it now feels free to go ahead and snarl in a discreet and gentlemanly way over his empty shoes.

They will be awarded, it is understood, to either William F. Carey or Col. J. S. Hammond at a meeting of the board of directors some time within the next two weeks.

It is also understood that Carey can have them for the asking, it being the common impression around the Garden today that this gentleman personally and individually enacted the miracle of Miami in connection with Messrs. Sharkey and Stribling. To hear the returning survivors tell it, our John, the Dempsey boy, had no more to do with this than did Ignatz the iceman, and so Carey is very much the boy with fair hair and florid complexion around the Garden.

Hammond is no psychological brunette, either. While Carey was spending money like a customer's man at Miami Beach, the colonel was up here saving it like a maiden aunt with a hope chest. The boys are not disposed to be nettled when someone forgets to leave the lights burning when he goes home for the night. The colonel is very reliable about things like that.

Fisher Valuable To Titan Team

Coach John Lawther Has Been Pleased With The Steady Improvement Made By Fisher. He Has Seen Action In Most Of The Games This Season, And By Another Year Should Develop Into An Outstanding Guard. His Height And Weight Make Him Invaluable In Retrieving The Ball From The Bankboard And His Good Nature Makes Him A Decided Influence For Good On The Whole Squad.

MARSHALL FISHER

Marshall Fisher, Boardman, O. football star, never played much basketball until he entered Westminster college a year ago. But the lanky guard has shown so much improvement, after only two years of play, that he will be one of the varsity letter men this season.

Coach John Lawther has been pleased with the steady improvement made by Fisher. He has seen action in most of the games this season, and by another year should develop into an outstanding guard. His height and weight make him invaluable in retrieving the ball from the bankboard and his good nature makes him a decided influence for good on the whole squad.

Hartman bid farewell to the Grove City people at chapel exercises held to give out letters and sweaters to the football team, and also awards to the basketball team.

For the past two or three years Hartman has been the leading pitcher on the Johnstown team of the Middle Atlantic league. His work last year attracted scouts and the offer from Montreal followed.

Gerson Jewelers To Play Valley Team

The Gerson Jewelers will play the Lisle T. Miller team of Beaver Falls at the "Y" floor on Wednesday night. It was announced today by S. Levin, manager of the Jewelers.

The Gersons earlier in the year defeated the Millers 19 to 13 here after a hectic extra-period session and naturally the volleys are out to avenge that defeat, since it was the only setback of the season.

The Gersons or Temple Israel, by virtue of their defeat of the First M. E. team last night, remain tied for first place in the church league with the Central Christians. These two teams meet on Friday night, March 8, to settle the supremacy question.

Clifton Flats To Reorganize Team

County Teams Clash Tonight

Eight County High Varsities Resume Class B. Schedule This Evening

Tonight the second round of inter-county basketball will take place, when eight of the county class B varsities and girls teams will clash. This will be the first game for this week, and other rounds being played Friday evening.

Shenango high school will play here to the Mt. Jackson varsity. East Brook will journey to Besencon. Union will play New Wilmington on the Lawrence floor and Union high school will journey to Plainsboro.

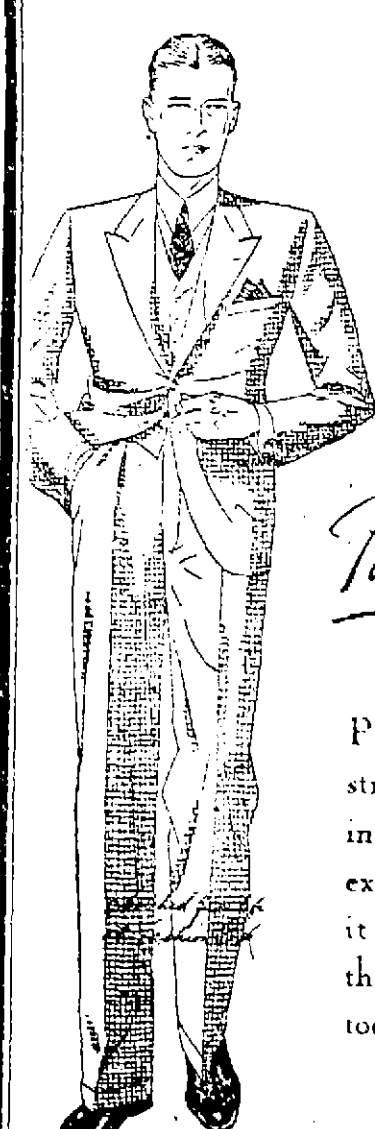

The schedule above is as announced by the county athletic committee and any changes which might arise will have been done by agreement between the two schools in question.

Two more sets of games remain in the county league of this season. On Friday evening of this week the varsities will clash and then on March 15, the final games will take place.

The boys' varsity championship has already been permanently settled in favor of New Wilmington. However, Friday evening will tell tale of the girls' championship when New Wilmington and the Mt. Jackson girls will meet on the Mt. Jackson floor.

American Legion Memberships Still Growing Larger Here

Date For American Legion Fish Fry Is Set For March 16 In Sons Of Columbus Hall

Maurice Reswick Gives Fine Address On Uses Of Gas During Late World War

ELLWOOD CITY, March 5.—The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Jay Wilbur Randolph Post of the American Legion took place Monday evening in the Legion rooms with 50 comrades present. The date for the "Fish Fry" which will be tendered by members of the losing team on the recent membership contest was set for March 16 in the Sons of Columbus Hall.

It was also announced that although the membership drive closed in February, many ex-service men are still coming in, making the total membership 251, which is far in excess of the membership any year since the organization of the post.

Comrade Maurice Reswick gave an excellent talk on the use of gas in the late World War, and was well equipped to explain many difficult technical points, as he was an official of the Chemical Division during the war, and is now a reserve officer in the same division. He told of the various uses of gas in warfare, and cleared up many points misunderstood to the layman.

The Legion also went on record as sponsoring a movie here and which will be shown during the first week in April entitled "Flying Feet", which is said to be better than "Wings". The district meeting which takes place here in May is being well taken care of, and members of the committees in charge are going ahead with their various plans. Most visiting posts who have received invitations, have signified their intentions of sending delegations.

Dempsey To Box In Charity Show

BOSTON, March 5.—Jack Dempsey, it was announced today, will take part in a charity boxing card at the Boston Garden Friday night.

It was the original plan of Mack to have the old Manassa Mauler master of ceremonies at the charity show, but the Massachusetts boxing commission refused to sanction such an arrangement, it was said.

Mack said he hoped to sign Dempsey during his stay here for a bout with Jimmy Maloney, to be held sometime next summer. A report published here today said that Dempsey had rejected a $250,000 offer to meet Maloney here next summer—that Jack told Mack at the time of the Sharkey-Striling fight that if he did any more fighting, and he didn't think he would, it would be for the Madison Square Corporation in New York.

Rev. E. C. Good Gives Talk At Kiwanis Club

Kiwanis Members To Collect Toys And Books For Fresh Air Camp This Summer

ELLWOOD CITY, March 5.—Members of the Kiwanis club had the pleasure of hearing an address Monday evening by Rev. E. C. Good, evangelist from Leeburg, Pa. Rev. Good chose as his subject, "Where Do You Live?" meaning not a home in a geographical sense, but rather where a man feels most at home. He went on to state that some men feel most at home with books, and others in the work-a-day world. He emphasized the fact that service to mankind was the most worthy factor in a man's life, and lived long after he was gone. His message was a strong one, and greatly enjoyed by the club members. The meeting took place in the dining room of the Trinity Lutheran church.

The club decided to sponsor a collection of toys and books for the children at the Community Service Fresh Air camp this summer. Anyone having such articles to donate may communicate with Michael Edelman or Jerry Porter. Mr. Edelman was appointed by the club as head of the Public Affairs committee to succeed Arthur Grandey, who was unable to give the time.

1925—COMMISSIONERS OVER-RULE REFEREE

(Written Exclusively for Central Press and New Castle News)
When the fistie fans in Manhattan Sporting Club filed out into a cold February night in 1925 after watching the bang-up Joe Dundee-Charley O'Connell 10-rounder, they were confused as to the actual winner and the method at which the officials arrived at their decision. It seemed that O'Connell hammered Dundee around at a lively rate and it was just a matter of how easy he was going to grab off the big end of the purse. In the ninth round he slapped the Italian to the canvas. Dundee, short of breath from punishment, took a stout count, rose to his feet and then suddenly decided to take a longer count and plumped down again without being hit.

Referee Jim Crowley immediately ruled that Dundee had disqualified himself and awarded the verdict to O'Connell. However, the commissioners, grouped at the ringside, disagreed and proceeded to go into a huddle.

With the crowd yelling for action Dundee was again ordered to fight. The referee's decision was overruled and the final round was ordered underway.

Again O'Connell renewed his punishing attack. At the finish the referee passed the buck to the commissioners, who then decided O'Connell, Cleveland boy, had won on points. The referee insisted he had won on a technical knockout and the boys who had wagered on the result had their choice of decisions.

And now we find that Pyle has kicked the wolves away from his front door—if there were wolves at his front door—and is about ready to try it again. Apparently he still believes in that old adage about the constant drip of water because he is promoting these cross country ankling contests just for the pleasure of giving the bunions their exercise. "Charley is too smart for that."

The second saunter is billed to get under way sometime around April. This year Pyle has decided to let the entries shoulder part of the financial load. Last year after the start he discovered that a lot of his hoofers were really bums at heart. As they were accustomed to pounding the concrete across the country, they lacked the will to have a place to eat and a doctor to look after their health. Then, too, they were charged by the populace whereas, traveling alone, they were never sure when they might be tossed into the hoosegown by some rural Grover Whalen anxious to make a record as an efficient policeman.

Pyle resented having bums mixed up with his business enterprise and this year he is going to require that each contestant signifiy his earnestness by giving him three hundred dollars as an entry fee. After that he will be allowed to gallop across the country with his companions, paying for his own food if he gets hungry, and for a doctor if he becomes ill. This may tend to heighten the quality of the bunions, but it will probably interfere tremendously with the quantity.

Through the new arrangement, Pyle expects to attract higher class bunions growers. With the added money from the entrance fees he expects to boost the prize money which will be awarded the fifteen hoofers who finish first.

The only drawback seems to hinge on the quantity.

PHILS WORK HARD. WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 5.—Two-day will be the order of practice sessions from now on for the Phils. The boys are spryly rounding into shape and the arrival of Fresno Thompson and Lester Sweetland, pitcher, gives promise of all hands being on the job by Sunday. Five more outfielders are expected by Thursday. The first exhibition game starts Sunday.

RUTH DETERMINED. ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 5.—Babe Ruth is determined to knock the ball into the lake in right field when the Yankees hold their first practice game today. In his first workout of the season yesterday the home run king drove two balls almost to the lake.

JUST ONE INNING. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 5.—Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants is the inventor of baseball's latest wrinkle—a one-inning ball game. In yesterday's contest each team kept the field until it had engineered 27 putouts and had but one inning at bat. The scrubs scored a 3 to 0 victory over the regulars.

WILSON GETS CHANCE. CLEARWATER, Fla., March 5.—Fritz Wilson, former Notre Dame second baseman, who has been paying his own bills here in the hope of landing a job with the Brooklyn club or one of its farms, is to get his chance. Manager Robinson has promised him to the Macon, Ga., club and Wilson will be reimbursed for his expenses.

The directors of the Brooklyn club are considering the salary demands of Pitchers Vance and McWeeny, star holdouts.

BECK MAKES GOOD. AVALON, Cal., March 5.—Norman McMillan and Clarence Blah, reserve infielders, are making a good impression on Manager Joe McCarthy, the latter admitted today. Third Baseman Clyde Beck is the presumed, uncertain link in the regular Cubs infield.

ily have returned from Coraopolis, where they were called to attend the funeral of the former's father, Alexander Morrow, which was held Saturday.

Miss Margaret McKee, who has been at the home of W. H. Grinnen for the past few months has returned to New Castle.

Custer Greer continues to improve, although his eye is very sore and painful at times.

Wampum people in New Castle Saturday, M. and Mrs. E. C. Hulbert, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bookner, Misses Marguerite Mahernad and Nellie Grinnen, Ike Veon, Truby Brown, D. S. Orris.

More Suffering Bunions

OLD CHARLEY PLANS TO START ANOTHER BUNION DERRY MARCH 31ST DESPITE HIS FINANCIAL SETBACK LAST SUMMER

By QUIN HALL
Once again it is announced that "Cash and Carry" Pyle will make another attempt to convert suffering bunions into coin of the realm.

Following the cross country crawl, which Pyle staged last year, it was thought that one such event would be sufficient punishment for even a Pyle who seems to take punishment like a punching bag and bounce back for more. After the bunions who finished the long trek pounded the pavements of New York City and wound up at Madison Square Garden with their feet wrapped up in burp sacks, and Pyle had slipped the winners their share of the prize money, it was rumored about that the promoter was in the red something like a hundred thousand on the event.

It wasn't a financial success. That's a certainty. But Good Old Charley didn't seem to suffer from the setback. Naturally Charley had hidden across the country in a swell movable bungalow with a kitchen attached, and while he must have known that the venture wasn't going to be a money-maker long before the strange parade ambled across the Middle West, Pyle must be given credit for holding the troupe together and bringing the show into New York under his own power. After the pay-off "Cash and Carry" was gone, enough to put a pink carnation in his buttonhole and smile it off, Charley is like that.

And now we find that Pyle has kicked the wolves away from his front door—if there were wolves at his front door—and is about ready to try it again. Apparently he still believes in that old adage about the constant drip of water because he is promoting these cross country ankling contests just for the pleasure of giving the bunions their exercise. ## Westminster Team Off To Pittsburgh

Westminster Titans To Battle Dangerous "Dukes" Tonight At Bluff Gym

The Westminster College basketball team, composed of ten players, Coach Lamotte, Graduate Manager Andy McDonald, and Student Manager Brahm, entrained here at 12:25 o'clock this afternoon via the Pennsylvania railroad for Pittsburgh. Tonight the Titans battle the Duquesne University quintet at the Bluff gym.

It will be the first game on the "Dukes" card. Westminster has one more game that night with Tabor on Thursday night at New Wilmington. Whether or not Tabor's Lions, stellar guard will start for the Lawmen is a matter of doubt. Lewis has been out of the past two games with a badly bruised shoulder suffered in the Geneva game.

The game tonight is Tri-State conference battle. The "Dukes" are not to be outdone that night. The hands of the United Press are earlier in the year but they must first stop the clever O'Donnell and the scoring machine DeBartolo.

Charles "Bugs" Watson, New Castle News sports writer accompanied the Westminster team to Pittsburgh today.

Proves To Be Runaway And His Parents Send Him Money To Get Home

As officer H. B. Semple of Hubbard, O., was driving toward this city last night on the New Bedford and New Castle road, he saw one of the large busses nearly hit a boy walking along the road.

He stopped his machine and invited the boy to ride with him. He then brought the boy to Sergeant J. P. Steiner of the local police force and turned him over to him.

The boy stated his name was Leonard Tjian and that he resided at 137 Harrison Alley, McKeesport, Pa. He admitted having run away from home, but stated he was enroute home.

The McKeesport police authorities were notified and got in touch with the boy's parents, who telegraphed him money to go home and he was placed on a train for that place shortly before eleven o'clock this morning, much pleased with the opportunity of getting home.

Has Your Back Given Out?
Backache Often Warns of Sluggish Kidneys!

Do you feel always tired and achy? Suffer nagging backache, drowsy, headaches and dizzy spells? Are the kidney excretions too frequent, scanty or burning?

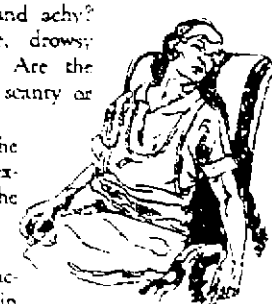

Colds and chills increase the poisons in the blood and bring extra work to the kidneys. Heed the early warnings. Don't let kidney trouble get a firm hold.

To promote normal kidney action and assist your kidneys in cleansing your blood of poisonous wastes, use Doan's Pills. Are endorsed everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's:
Mrs. Lydia Bolander, 106 Amanda Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., says: "I can publicly recommend Doan's Pills for what they have done for me. My kidneys were not acting normally. Headaches and dizzy spells tormented me a lot. There was a burning across my back and I felt out of sorts. I felt all right after using Doan's Pills."
